by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 68-126-206, is amended by deleting the language in its entirety and substituting the following language:

The license requirements shall not apply to individual employees of a licensed retailer. However, at least one employee of a licensed retailer who is directly involved in the installation of a manufactured home is required to be certified by the state fire marshal. In order to obtain such certification, the employee shall have completed a fifteen (15) hour course in manufactured home installation approved by the commissioner. At least one (1) certified employee shall be physically on-site at the time of installation of any manufactured home.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 68-126-404(d)(2), is amended by deleting the language in its entirety and substituting the following language:

An application for certification by an employee of an installer shall be submitted on a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall be accompanied by proof of having completed a fifteen (15) hour course, approved by the commissioner, covering the installation of manufactured homes. The license fee and bond requirements specified in (d)(1) of this section shall not apply to applicants for certification.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 68-126-404(d)(3), is amended by deleting the language in its entirety and substituting the following language:

The application for a license as an installer must specify each employee who has been certified by the state fire marshal as having successfully completed the fifteen (15) hour course for manufactured home retailers and installers and who will or may be physically on-site at the time of set up of any manufactured home.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2004, the public welfare requiring it.
